

Open Call for Erasmus+ Exchange with West University of Timisoara, Romania

Sep 13, 2017

West University of Timisoara, is offering students, academic and administrative staff members the chance to participate in an exchange with Erasmus+. The West University of Timisoara (Universitatea de Vest din Timisoara) is established in 1962, it is organized in 11 Faculties. In the 2016 QS World University Rankings, West University was included in the Top 700 universities of the world, together with three other Romanian universities.

As a continuation of a successful partnership between IBU and West University of Timisoara, Romania the following positions for ERASMUS + exchange are open:

	Number of participants	Period of mobility	Subject area
Student Mobility	2 students	5 months each	International Relations, Modern Languages (English), Management, Finance
	2 students*	5 months each

	Number of participants	Period of mobility	Subject area
Teaching Mobility	2 teaching staff	5 days each	International Relations, Modern Languages (English), Management, Finance

	Number of participants	Period of mobility
Training Mobility	1 administrative staff	5 days

Mobilities that need to be finalized before 31st of July 2018.

In case of STUDENT MOBILITIES, please take into account that these can only take place beginning with the second semester (i.e. between February and July 2018).

For more information please visit their website.

Those interested should contact the International Relations Office for further information (A Block) as soon as possible.